Before I bought my Palomino SS500 about Thanksgiving of 2018, I researched various options and read reviews. One of the common comments about Palomino campers was a lack of quality control in the past. However, most recent owners said that quality control has dramatically improved in recent years. However, my experience doesn't bear this out.

The list of things wrong with this camper is extensive and growing; I would need more than the 5000 characters. The warranty from Palomino blames the dealer and the dealer says we can only fall back on the warranty. I really just want Palomino to buy back this lemon of a camper back so I can get back to enjoying camping with a quality camper.
