Some comments on your plan. You'll lose an hour between Las Vegas and Page, Arizona. 8 AM in Las Vegas is 9 AM in Page... Too bad you're driving past Zion without spending time there. It's a more important site than the activities in Page. You probably won't have time to do both an Antelope Canyon tour and the hike to Horseshoe Bend on the 15th before it gets dark.

Like Phantom Ranch at the bottom of the Canyon and El Tovar on the South Rim, the best cabins on the north side tend to fill up at least a year in advance. Fortunately, there aren't any bad options up north. All of the cabins and motel rooms, which serve as the "lodging" component of the Grand Canyon Lodge, are close to the rim.

There is SO much to see and do in Arizona and with only three days for our whole Arizona road trip, we had to make our time at the Grand Canyon a bit shorter than I would have preferred. With our limited frame in mind, we started, right after lunch, making the two-hour drive to Page, Arizona along the Rim Road, stopping at viewpoints, like the appropriately name Grandview Point overlook, along ...
