For emotional, here are my tips: -Let the characters be happy. Throwing angst to try to make it emotional won't work, it'll only let your reader's eyes grow adjusted to the dark and not mind it anymore. -Instead of sacrificing their own lives, wha...

What makes a good, emotional, and engaging-to-read ...

Character reaction is key to gaining the reader's attention, to pulling her deeper into the scene, to engaging the reader's emotions. Characters who remain unmoved keep readers unmoved. If events don't touch a character, they certainly won't touch the reader. If the characters aren't curious, readers won't be either.
