Hands of the Living God. "It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God" (Heb. 10:31). Over the past few days we have been studying the second half of Hebrews 10 and the exhortations and warnings that are given about our need to persevere. We have seen that deliberate and unrepentant sin can lead professing church members into final apostasy and the awful judgment that it deserves (vv. 26-29).
